The Parkersburg application is put forward by the very best business and moneyed men of the city. They already have a thoroughly equipped ball park within the city limits, also another desirable location at the new fair grounds where there is a grand stand with a seating capacity of 8,000. With an independent team Parkersburg has drawn from 1,000 to 5,000 people to each of their games. League ball, it is declared, would sparrough, Sp

BREAKS THE GARDEN RECORD

Crack Professional Covers Ten Miles in 54 Minutes, 38 Seconds, and at End of Twelve Miles Is Fresh as a Daisy-Spring Wins Preliminary Event-Small Crowd Present.

New York, Jan. 9 .- Alfred Shrubb, probably the greatest long-distance runner in the world, gave a superb exhibition of speed and endurance in Madison Square Garden to-night, when he won a twelvemile relay race against three crack professionals. From the end of the first lap Shrubb showed that he was a phenomenal runner. He sprinted away from Frank Kanaly, the first relay man, and beat im by two and a half laps in the first our miles, the time being 21:30. Then Shrubb had the same advantage over Fred Simpson, a Canadian Indian, at the end of eight miles, his time being 43:15. Shrubb ran ten miles in 54:38, beating all previous records for the Garden.

Tom Laidlaws was easily disposed of in the last four miles, Shrubb winning by about three-quarters of a lap in 1:66f57. The English champion was as fresh as a daisy when he walked to his dressing

That New Yorkers do not care for anything in the way of foot races but longdistance events between star performers of the Longboat-Dorando type, was shown BIG CROWD SEES THE BATTLE by the comparative smallness of the crowd which gathered to see the Shrubb relay race. There were, however, more than 3,000 persons on hand at 9 o'clock when a five-mile professional handica was started. This event was the forrunner of the relay race in which Shrub met three men at twelve miles, each o his rivals to travel four. Shrubb's competitors were Frank M. Kanaly, of Cam bridge, Mass.; Fred Simpson, an Ojibwa Indian from Canada, and Tom Laidlaws

LEAGUE FRANCHISE

John J. Strain Elected Manager-He Has Collected Galaxy of Top-notchers, Including "Curley" Byrd, "Chick" Thomas, Pop Harding, Cleveland Beckett, and Others.

By E. A. FULLER,

One of the first amateur baseball clubs to be organized in Washington for the coming season has been formed among the employes of the District of Columbia government and it is no exaggeration to say that scattered among the various branches of the municipal offices are some of the star ball players in the city. John J. Strain, captain of the watch at he Municipal Building, has been elected manager, and it is probable that J. Harry Colliflower, assistant chief watchman, will be made captain of the team.

While stationed at Plattsburg, N. Y., Manager Strain played the initial sack for the team representing the Twentyfirst Infantry, in which he was corporal. In 1896 and 1897 he was manager of the Ninth Infantry club, which won the championship of Northern New York.

Jimmie Barrett, recently a member of the Detroit Tigers, played shortstop for this club, where he made a reputation which finally landed him in big company. Manager Strain also played with a team of soldiers on Davids Island, New York Harbor, and also in the Philippine Islands, while a soldier there. He is an enthusiast, knows the game, Losers Attribute Defeat to the Code and how it should be played, and seldom of Collegiate Rules Governing the fails to correctly judge a ball player Contest-Keliher, Substituted for when once he sees him in action.
